Fabrice Demarigny appointed as a member of the European Securities Markets Expert Group

Fabrice Demarigny has been appointed by the European Commission as a member of the European Securities Markets Expert Group (ESME) which comprises 20 European experts from across the financial markets spectrum.

The task of this group of experts is to provide legal and economic advice on the application of European Directives pertaining to stock markets, the obligations of listed companies, financial management, investment companies and securities. This group brings together high level experts from the financial markets and services sector within the European Union who possess proven and recent practical experience in respect of the issues covered by the group's Terms of Reference.

Each member of the group is appointed for a 2 year renewable mandate.
