

New office in Strasbourg:

According to our development strategy we opened our first office in Strasbourg (France) on 1st September 2008.

Thus getting closer to our German clients, we aim to develop a center focused on advising SMEs on their daily concerns. In this endeavor we have hired two partners, Eric Riehl and Andreas Spitz, from Landwell, member of the PWC network.

Eric Riehl is specialized in corporate law, more specifically on sales/acquisitions and corporate restructuring.

Andreas Spitz practices commercial law, contract law, and commercial litigation, particularly for ailing companies.

In addition, Guillaume Rubechi and Patrick Glebocki will be part of the team.

Guillaume Rubechi, partner in charge of the French desk in Frankfurt, and Patrick Glebocki both specialized in corporate taxes, real estate taxation, and international fiscal law.

This multilingual team (speaking French, German and English) is at your disposal to accompany you in your projects.
